

Improving health services through community score cards. A case study from Andhra Pradesh, India

Description

Case study 1, Andhra Pradesh, India : improving health services through community score cards

Tweet

MISRA, Vivek et al , August 2007

This eight page note summarises the findings, processes, concerns, and lessons learned from a project in Andhra Pradesh – one of six pilot projects aimed at the application of specific social accountability tools in different contexts of service delivery

Tags

1. governance
2. health

Date

20/05/2026

Date Created

15/08/2007

Author

admin