Evaluation Revisited â?? Improving the Quality of Evaluative Practice by Embracing Complexity

Description

Tweet

Utrecht Conference Report. Irene Guijt, Jan Brouwers, Cecile Kusters, Ester Prins and Bayaz Zeynalova. March 2011. Available as pdf

This report summarises the outline and outputs of the Conference â??Evaluation Revisited: Improving the Quality of Evaluative Practice by Embracing Complexityâ??â??, which took place on May 20-21, 2010. It also adds additional insights and observations related to the themes of the conference, which emerged in presentations about the conference at specific events.

Contents (109 pages):

1 What is Contested and What is at Stake
1.1 Trends at Loggerheads
1.2 What is at Stake?
1.3 About the May Conference
1.4 About the Report
2 Four Concepts Central to the Conference
2.1 Rigour
2.2 Values
2.3 Standards
2.4 Complexity
3 Three Questions and Three Strategies for Change
3.1 What does â??evaluative practice that embraces complexityâ?? mean in practice?
3.2 Trade-offs and their Consequences
3.3 (Re)legitimise Choice for Complexity
4 The Conference Process in a Nutshell

Tags

1. complexity
2. Conference papers
3. experimental methods
4. RCT
5. rigour
6. standards

Date
12/11/2026
Date Created
21/04/2011
Author
admin