[Aplogies: This page is still at the draft stage, there are some formating and other problems]

A suggested definition of a M&E Framework:

> A document that tells you who is expected to know what, as well as when and how they are expected to know.

The list (under development, suggestions welcomed):

- Clear Horizon: Developing Frameworks Overview (Undated!) Includes seven steps:
    - Step One: Scope the Monitoring and Evaluation Framework
    - Step Two: Clarify the logic
    - Step Three: Revise/set Measures of Success
    - Step Four: Develop a Meaningful Monitoring System
    - Step five. Consider Strategic Evaluation Studies
    - Step Six. Ensure Effective Reporting
    - Step Seven: Incorporate Reflection, Learning and Improvement Strategies
- CES UK (Undated!) A framework for monitoring and evaluation
    - Understanding and clarifying your project
    - Developing a mission statement
    - Aims and objectives
    - Performance Indicators
    - Setting targets
    - Planning for monitoring and evaluation
- What should be found within an M&E framework / plan? Rick Davies, 2008, one pager note on suggested contents. Soon to be revised
