Monday Developments issue on NGO accountability

Description

(via Niels Keijzer on the Pelikan email list) Tweet

The December 2007 issue of Monday Developments, a monthly magazine published by InterAction (the largest coalition of NGOs in the United States), explores key accountability issues for NGOs. Through various angles, the issue looks into â??(â?¦) the conflicts organizations face with scarce resources, demanding missions and the need to evaluate progress and effectiveness.â?•

The articles include views on the topic from development donors, the Humanitarian Accountability Project, the importance of listening for accountability, implications for evaluation standards and practice, downward accountability, â?¦
