Date: 30 August to 3 September 2010
Venue: Lille, France

Call for papers â?? Deadline: 7 May 2010

The Network of Researchers on Evaluation of the French Evaluation Society (SociÃ©tÃ© FranÃ§aise de lâ??Evaluation) has the pleasure of:

- informing you that it is organising the International Summer School on Evaluation Research from 30 August to 3 September 2010 in Lille, France, (Web site: http://www.sfe-asso.fr/sfe-evaluation.php?menu_id=473 ; contact : sfe.universite-ete@orange.fr),
- sending you a call for papers (attached herewith) for this event.

This Summer School is intended to be an ideal opportunity for those in the scientific community interested in public policy evaluation to compare scientific work on the subject and to discuss the interdisciplinary nature of evaluation research.

The call for papers is addressed to all PhD students, post-docs, researchers and academics working on evaluation. Selected papers will be delivered at a series of workshops, within the broader framework of the Summer School (cf. attached Programme).

The registration at the summer school are possible. The registration form is available on-line at http://www.sfe-asso.fr/sfe-evaluation.php?menu_id=529

Highly attractive rates have been applied to facilitate the participation of everyone, especially PhDs and young researchers, in the full programme. Complete information on this event is available on-line at: http://www.sfe-asso.fr/sfe-evaluation.php?menu_id=473

Kindly disseminate this information in your scientific networks.

Thank you for your interest, Best regards, The Organizing Committee and the Scientific Committee
