Improving health services through community score cards. A case study from Andhra Pradesh, India

Description

Tweet

Case study 1, Andhra Pradesh, India : improving health services through community score cards
MISRA, Vivek et al , August 2007

This eight page note summarises the findings, processes, concerns, and lessons learned from a project in Andhra Pradesh â?? one of six pilot projects aimed at the application of specific social accountability tools in different contexts of service delivery

Tags

1. governance
2. health

Date
16/11/2026
Date Created
15/08/2007
Author
admin